

Casual Employment in the Electronics and Software Industry

Abridge Solutions (www.abridge.com.au) is a Perth based IT Solutions company that is seeking candidates to be involved with their latest project in the tracking and navigation field.

Address: Abridge House, 1/5 Turner Avenue, Bentley WA 6102

Position/s Title: Systems/Electronic Engineer

Description of Position: We at Abridge Solutions (www.abridge.com.au) seek autonomous and enthusiastic tertiary students from the electrical/electronic and/or Information Technology disciplines to join our systems team.

If you are a talented and motivated electrical/electronic and/or IT student/graduate, excited by the challenge of working in an environment where you will be expected to work autonomously, then Abridge could be for you.

You shall report to the project team leader and collaborate within a team environment. You will be involved in the areas of testing and reporting on field monitoring devices, location based services involving GPS, RFiD, SMS, GPRS related projects.

Essential you have a Quick Mind that can learn and adapt.

Academic Disciplines : B.Sc (Computer Science) or B.Eng (IT/Elect/Electronic) – preferably in penultimate or final year of studies.

Employment Type : Full Time or Casual basis during university period.

Experience/skills Essential: General IT/Electronics skills and understanding.

Experience/skills Desirable: Bluetooth understanding, Serial communications, RS232 device interface, C++ programming experience.

Employment start date: ASAP

Closing date for applications: 31 January 2006

How to apply : Email CV to cv@abridge.com.au or fax to 08-9470 1066 referencing the position title.

For Additional Information please contact : Philip Chang on 08 9470 1166.